Renren Announces Formation of Special Committee and Receipt of Preliminary Non-binding Proposal

BEIJING, China—December 22, 2016—Renren Inc. (NYSE: RENN) (“Renren” or the “Company”), a leading real-name social networking internet platform in China, today announced that the board of directors of the Company has formed a special committee to review the terms of a proposed spin-off. As previously announced, the Company intends to spin off a newly formed subsidiary (“SpinCo”) that will hold the Company’s social video platform woxiu.com and most of the Company’s investments in minority stakes in privately held companies. Mr. Tianruo Pu, Mr. Stephen Tappin and Ms. Hui Huang have been appointed by the board of directors to be the members of the special committee.

The spin-off is being undertaken to minimize the risk that the Company could be deemed to be an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act of 1940 by reducing the aggregate amount of investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries on the Company’s balance sheet and to unlock potential in the Company’s social video business by separating it from the Company’s social networking and internet financing businesses.

As previously announced, the Company plans to distribute rights, exercisable for shares in SpinCo, to the Company’s shareholders on a pro rata basis. The rights will not be transferable and may only be exercised by shareholders who are both “qualified purchasers” under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and “accredited investors” under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company will distribute cash in lieu of fractional rights and cash to holders of rights who cannot exercise or who choose not to exercise their rights.

The Company further announced that its board of directors has received a preliminary non-binding proposal to purchase any shares of SpinCo that are not distributed in the proposed spin-off. The letter was from Mr. Joseph Chen, the Company’s founder, chairman and chief executive officer, Mr. James Jian Liu, the Company’s executive director and chief operating officer, and SoftBank Group Capital Limited, an affiliate of SB Pan Pacific Corporation. Mr. Chen and SB Pan Pacific Corporation are the Company’s two largest shareholders. The preliminary non-binding proposal would value SpinCo at US$500 million, net of debt.

The Company cautions the Company’s shareholders and others considering trading in its securities that the proposal is non-binding and that no decisions have been made with respect to the Company’s response to the offer. There can be no assurance that any definitive offer will be made, that any agreement will be executed or that this or any other transaction will be approved or consummated. The Company does not undertake any obligation to provide any updates with respect to this or any other transaction, except as required under applicable law.
